Creative Portal

Understanding the Business Case for
Creativity in every day situations.

Creative Portal Inc. was established in 2013. CPI is a visionary company prepared to launch the B2B2C communities into one collaborative hybrid marketing and sourcing vehicle that will define the digital marketplace.

CPI launched their two first portals based upon the needs to collectively harness an industry in one online tool. Search, Source and Product match using a new set of analytic and web 3.0 tools.

Our team is seasoned in the B2B marketplace and has a vision and determination to change the digital marketplace.

Our objective is to improve and facilitate efficient business transactions for suppliers and consumers of products.

CPI has launched two new product search Portals. <http://www.Supply2build.com> Launched September 2013 and <http://www.Built2market.com> launched October 2014.

S2b connect users to over 20,000 sub-product and product categories within the sectors represented. User of S2b become the key suppliers for B2M using the products sources on S2b to manufacture and innovate their business for new products to their customers.

Over 40,000 qualified buyers (visitors) per month.
